

ONE PAGER ASSIGNMENT

1. Title - Clearly display the title, author, & your first/last name.
2. Border - Start with a border. Use words, pictures, symbols or quotes that relate to the book.
3. Visual - Create a visual image. This can be a character, scene or symbols which represent the plot of the book.
4. Word Cluster - Around your image, create a word cluster. Use a minimum of 6 words which represent or describe whatever your image is.
5. Text Connections - Write one paragraph in which you make a text to text, text to self or text to world connection. Use evidence to support.
6. Quotes - Copy your two most favorite quotes from the book. Explain what each quote means and why you chose it. Include page numbers.
7. Summary - Write a one paragraph OBJECTIVE summary for this book.
8. Character - Choose one character from the book. In what ways has the character changed from the beginning to the end of the book? Explain what brought about these changes and if they were positive or negative for the character. Use CITED evidence from the book to explain your answer.

* NOTES *

Your entire page should be filled with these elements. There should be NO empty spaces. If you have any room left choose one of the following:

- Add a poem about a character
- Explain the theme of the book
- Create 2 higher-order thinking questions that go with the book
  - Explain what the conflict was and how it was resolved
- Describe the setting and how it influenced the story
- Write a review of the book. Would you recommend it? Why or why not?

UGLIES      PRETTIES      SPECIALS

UGLIES

Scott Westerfeld      ANAYKA PEARSEY

Objective Summary

In the book "Uglies" by Scott Westerfeld it explains how Tally goes through a struggle to becoming a pretty in the Society. For starters, Tally awaits for her milestone of turning 16 and receiving her operation. But along the way she meets a friend named Shay who doesn't quite agree with the idea of getting the operation. Shay then escapes. The time came, Tally turned 16 and leaves to get the operation done! Dr. Cable then breaks the news that she isn't allowed to get the operation unless she finds her friend Shay who had escaped. The thing is that Tally doesn't know if she wants to betray Shay and turn her in meanwhile, getting the operation. Or if she doesn't turn her in never getting the operation, changing her whole life around.

PERIS      SHAY      TALLY

Character In the book Tally has changed from the beginning to the end. She has changed because of how the way she acts and thinks. For example, in the beginning Tally was very un-informational. She didn't know much things about her society and how things worked. For instance, in the beginning she didn't know about things like what a roller coaster was and how hoverboards functioned. But, know in the end Tally knows how these things work and also how the Pretties Society are different than there's (Uglyville).

Text Connections A Text Connection I have made in this book is Text-to-Text. This connection is with the book named "The Giver". For example, one connection is how messed up the society is. In the book "Giver" the citizens are forced to behave and not act up. In comparison to the book "Uglies" the citizens are forced to turn pretty. This proves that they have a connection because they both involve enforcement on to the citizens. In addition, they are both also alike because they include punishments if you weren't to follow the rules.

Quotes "Night was coming, the sun setting over the ocean, turning the water bloodred." This quote means that the sunset view really astonishing and bright, the sun now glared over the water perfectly that it looked bloodred! I chose this because it gives you a warmth and comforting feel.

"She was going to get an award for bravery when she should really be getting kicked out of the group for treason." This means that she knew that she didn't deserve it but wants it. I chose this because it shows how easily someone can manipulate you into thinking something different than the truth.

EXTRA'S

Paradise      Attractiveness      New      Pretty      Town      Operation      Perfection      Beauty      sixteen

ZACH'S LIE by Roland Smith Mrs. Stebbins

JOURNAL

"Blue Lies, Zach thought" - pg. 95

"A shepherd stays with his flock" - pg. 208

Text Connection

I can make a text connection between this book and myself (text-to-self). Everyone has had a time when they were forced to keep a secret or tell a lie. In the book, Zach (pg. 97) struggled to connect with kids at school, but he could not tell the truth about his life. I can relate with this because sometimes it can be hard to make friends when you are afraid of what they may think.

RUBY MOUNTAINS.

OBJECTIVE SUMMARY.

Zach's Lie by Roland Smith is a realistic fiction story about a boy and his family that are forced to enter the witness security program after the father is arrested for drug trafficking. The family is forced to start over with new identities in Elko Nevada. Just as they begin to get comfortable with their new lives someone finds out who they are and tells their secret to the dangerous men that want them dead. The climax of the story ends with a confrontation between Zach, the drug cartel and the secret CIA agent working at Zach's school. They must restart their lives all over again.

CHARACTER ANALYSIS.

There are many ways that the character of Zach Granger changed from the beginning of the book to the end. Page 85 says "Zach was shy around new people." Starting a new school not being able to tell anyone the truth made it even more difficult for him. However, by the end of Ch. 10 Zach has started to make friends with Cathin and Darril. After his fight with Peter Zach becomes popular at school but he stood up to the school bully and protected Cath. These changes were both positive and negative. It was good that he was able to make friends, but he also gained Peter as an enemy which ended up ruining his life.

EXTRA'S

Family: Prison: Secrets: Eyes

Witness: Drugs: Hostage

Journal: J.A.

I chose this quote because it shows how hard it was for Zach to live a life that was based on lies. This was also the beginning of Zach + Cathin's relationship.

I chose this quote because Sam is an important character in this book. If he were not looking out for the kids at Elko Middle Zach probably would not have survived.