- Create your OWN questions and write them in the margins of the pages. Write at least 3 questions per chapter. These questions will be used in Socratic seminars. The questions must start with 'how' or 'why.'

PART 2:

1. Read ONE book of choice in grade level and watch the movie adaptation.
2. Write a 1000-word analysis paper that analyzes why specific textual changes were made in the film. Make sure to turn in pre-writing (an outline), a very rough draft, and a revised/edited final draft all together. Your final draft will not be accepted if you do not show your process work. Your paper must cite several textual examples from the film and book.
